

Guided Reading	English	Maths	Science	Skills Builder	Class Reader
L: Apply retrieval and inference skills to answering questions. Click on this link to access the recorded video PPT. Follow along with the lesson video to recap the skills of retrieval and inference. Live lesson available 9:00-9:30.	L: Analyse an alternative version of a traditional narrative. Click on this link to access the recorded video PPT. Watch the online video to hear the alternative version of the classic tale: 'Little Red Riding Hood.' Mild Task: Sort the statements into the correct column to show the differences. Hot Task: Fill in the Venn diagram to show similarities and differences. FL' Hot Task: Create a Carroll diagram to show similarities and differences. Use the texts to help: Traditional Narrative Alternative Narrative	L: Apply knowledge to solving simple, 1-step equations. Click on this link to access the recorded video PPT. Use the online video lesson to help you answer the questions. Task Questions How far can you get in 45 minutes? Task Answers Mark your answers and complete any corrections. Finished early? True or False Question How would you explain your answer? Use mathematical vocabulary in your reasoning. Live lesson available 11:00-12:00.	L: Know what blood is made up of and understand the function of each part. Click on this link to access the recorded video PPT. Refer to the online video as many times as you need to help you access today's task. Composition of Blood Mild: Complete the first half of the sheet. Hot: Complete the whole sheet. FL' Hot: Write 4 short paragraphs explaining the function of each component of blood. Make sure to use scientific vocabulary within your paragraphs. Composition of Blood - Answers	Skill: Staying Positive At this current time, it is really important that we reflect on the skill of staying positive. It also another way in which we can maintain a healthy lifestyle – by maintaining positive mental health. Access the following online activity using the web link below and work your way through the thinking questions and activities: http://resource.skillsbuilder.org/Short-Lessons/Staying-Positive-Step-5-Part-2-Spreading-Cheer/story.html	'Charlotte's Web' by E.B. White Chapters 15-16 Will Henry Fussy capture Fern's attention? Click on this link to access the recorded chapters.