

Living Things and Their Habitats

Choose the correct word from the word bank below to type into the gaps so that the definitions make sense. You can mark off the words in the word bank when you have used them if you like.

Word Bank

habitats	extinct
place	organisms
species	alive
react	waste
air	nutrition
	reproduction

life processes

This is another word that can be used to mean 'living things'.

respiration

What living things do to stay .

A process where plants and animals use oxygen gas from the to help turn their food into energy.

sensitivity

The way living things to changes in their environment.

The process through which young are produced.

excretion

The process by which living things get rid of products.

habitat

The process of obtaining food to provide living things with energy to live and stay healthy.

The specific area or in which particular animals or plants may live.

environment

An environment contains many and these include areas where there are both living and non-living things.

endangered species

A plant or animal where there are not many of their species left and scientists are concerned that the species may become .

extinct

When a has no more members alive on the planet, it is extinct.

Woodland Habitat Classification Key

Select the correct question from the drop-down menu so that the animals are identified correctly in this classification key.

Vertebrates have a backbone.
Invertebrates do not have a backbone.

